

Operational Level 1

- JATOC Operational Level 1: Steady State, is the normal State of operations in the JATOC.
- All members of the JATOC are engaged in performing their existing mission and functioning at a normal tempo.
- They will maintain situational awareness and highlight any information that may impact the operational state of the NAS.
- The individual JATOC functional elements continue to be responsible to and tasked by their respective parent offices and internal communications.