

The JATOC Elements

- So far, we have discussed the need for the JATOC to improve messaging and management during significant events in the NAS.
- We have also talked about how the mission of the JATOC addresses this need.
- Now let's focus on identifying the functional elements of the JATOC and how their co-location supports this mission.
- Although each element has their own daily mission to support various aspects of the NAS, when a significant event occurs it is important that they respond as a unit.
